

Parent/Guardian Consent for Massage Therapy Services for a Minor

A minor is any person age 17 years and under according to Florida law.

Any massage therapy provided at a facility, training, or competition venue under the care of an employee, contracted employee, or representative of Rx Massage Therapy, Inc must be conducted in an open and interruptible location. Any massage therapy for a minor athlete must be done with at least one other adult present at all times. The adult can be either the athlete’s parent/guardian or coach of the same gender as the athlete. Massage therapy will not be provided with only the minor athlete and the Licensed Massage Therapist in the room for any modality (including but not limited to any manual therapy, stretching, kinesiology taping, cupping, or any medical device).
